Best Western Expands in Germany: New Hotel in Viernheim near Mannheim

In June, the Best Western Hotel Viernheim Mannheim opened in Viernheim near Mannheim, Germany. The hotel was built on the site of the former Viernheim ice rink and offers a total of 86 rooms.

Viernheim/Eschborn (Germany), June 18th 2019. There is a new Best Western Hotel in Germany: The newly built hotel opened in June 2019 in Viernheim near Mannheim as Best Western Hotel Viernheim Mannheim. The hotel operator, Pear Hotel Viernheim GmbH, already manages the Best Western City Hotel Pirmasens in Germany with the international brand. The trademark and eponym of the Pear hotel group is the "pear", which runs like a red thread through the new hotel building as a design element. "We are very satisfied with Best Western's versatile services. That's why we wanted to join our second hotel in Viernheim with the group in order to position it successfully in the market," explains Marius Gross, Managing Director of Pear Hotel Viernheim GmbH. Together with 15 employees the General Manager Taner Isik will manage the hotel.

The Best Western Hotel Viernheim Mannheim offers a total of 86 modern guest rooms decorated in warm colours, a hotel bar with a choice of food, an outdoor terrace and a rooftop terrace, a group room for events for 20 people and free parking directly at the hotel. The new hotel is located in the second largest city in the German Bergstrasse district, in the middle of the economic and conurbation area of the Rhine-Neckar metropolitan region with optimal motorway connections.
